ADDITIONAL PROGRAMS BY THE DATING DOCTOR:

RELATIONSHIP RESILIENCY: HOW TO OVERCOME TOUGH TIMES AND TOXIC PEOPLE

Bullying. Harassment. Stalking. Abuse. Humiliation. Criticism. Racism. Avoidance. It is hard to believe in this day and age that many college students and others are still facing personal onslaughts of this magnitude. Some fight the battle publicly, while others face their struggles quite painfully and privately. No matter the path, the stress can be overwhelming and chip away at our self-esteem, our will and our self-confidence. Stalking and harassment survivor, David Coleman will address how to navigate and learn from tough times (that feel as if they may never end) and how to interact with difficult people (who may be oblivious, proud that they are or in denial that they are). Resiliency is the capacity to recover quickly from our difficulties and misfortunes through our toughness. This session will help the participants form a plan of action to weather the toughest of times and thrive following interactions with people who test us to our core.

AN UNPLUGGED SESSION WITH THE DATING DOCTOR!

A candid discussion on what is relevant and what matters. The students drive this program as they supply the topics upon arrival and early into the program. All topics within the genre of dating, relationships, romance, sex and friendships are fair game, if they are submitted with utmost respect and inclusivity in mind. There is no session quite like it!

THE DOCTOR IS IN!

This is perfect for Club Day, Welcome Week, Student Org fair, or a program information table in the student center. Put David in a booth or at a table to serve all students who walk up and need immediate assistance. This also includes a campus show.
